HOW WE INVEST

MudrickCapital

LARGE OPPORTUNITY SET RESULTS IN MULTIPLE FLAVORS OF DISTRESSED CREDIT

We believe our potential opportunity set is the largest in history, with approximately $5.7TR of North American and European non-investment grade credit currently outstanding [1]

OUR ANALYSIS STARTS WHEN WE IDENTIFY DEBT INSTRUMENTS TRADING MEANINGFULLY BELOW PAR. THIS RESULTS IN A VARIETY OF DISTRESSED OPPORTUNITIES SUCH AS:

STRESSED CREDIT / PULL-TO-PAR: Stressed debt that we believe are trading significantly below intrinsic value primarily for attractive yield, which includes a combination of current income and "pull-to-par" capital appreciation. One-to-two year average holding period.

LIABILITY MANAGEMENT TRANSACTIONS / CAPITAL SOLUTIONS: Out of court restructurings negotiated directly with the debtor (usually with a private equity sponsor) to extend the debt's maturity and enhance liquidity in exchange for tighter covenants and other credit enhancing modifications. Two-to-three year holding period.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS: Debt or equity of companies that we believe are trading significantly below their intrinsic value due to a market dislocation or idiosyncratic company-specific situation. Two-to-four year average holding period.

DEBT FOR EQUITY CONVERSIONS: Distressed debt of companies that we believe are trading significantly below their intrinsic value with an aim of taking an active role in debt restructuring negotiations or other processes to influence the outcome. Active influence typically expressed via ad hoc groups, creditors' committees and/or post-reorganization boards of directors. Three-to-five year average holding period.

SOURCING
13-person Investment and Trading Team monitor proprietary database of high yield bonds and levered loans in North America and Europe trading generally below 90c or with a low-to-mid double-digit yield. Mudrick's vast network has also proven lucrative for sourcing new opportunities.

RESEARCH and DUE DILIGENCE
Iterative and rigorous industry and bottoms-up fundamental company research includes reviewing industry fundamentals, capital structures, historical cash flow analysis and exit strategies. Analyst will also engage in conversations with management teams, sponsors, and other industry experts.

INVESTMENT RESEARCH COMMITTEE ("IRC")
After research is complete, the investment may be put to the IRC for a vote. Investment must receive a majority vote to be added to the IRC Approved List, which is generally capped at around 25 names. If one investment is voted onto a full list, another investment generally will be removed.

EXECUTION and RISK MANAGEMENT
Portfolio managers work with the investment team to ultimately decide entry cost and position sizing, subject to final approval by the CIO. After the position is in the portfolio, the team who led the underwriting will continue to actively monitor the position.

1. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Attribution data is presented for informational purposes only. Additional information regarding the calculation methodology and contribution to performance of each of the Fund's positions is available on request. Attribution is intended to demonstrate the effect that individual positions (which may be represented by more than one instrument) had on the fund's overall gross returns since inception. The performance of instruments held solely for hedging the fund's portfolio as a whole are not included; such hedging instruments, in general, contributed to the fund's gross losses and would have reduced the proportion of positive contributors shown if such hedging instruments had been included as positions. The performance of position-specific hedging instruments have been included and netted against the performance of other instruments constituting the same position. Paired trades combined into one investment. Please see Appendix for important additional information relating to this Slide.
2. - This includes single-name opportunities, co-investments within fund structures, programmatic mandates, and thematic products. Investors can gain further exposure to specific positions and themes currently utilized by Mudrick funds

- The minimum investment size will vary depending on the situation and structure

WHY NOW

MUDRICK CAPITAL

MUDRICK CAPITAL

The current environment has created an influx of opportunities for us to participate in and generate alpha

Growth in Non-Investment Grade Credit

The non-investment grade credit market has grown from $2 trillion (2009) to $5.7 trillion (2024)[1], driven by low interest rates, economic expansion, rising valuations, and a long period between recessions, which encouraged corporate borrowing.

Post-2022 Regime Change and Market Shift

Rising interest rates starting in 2022 significantly reshaped the distressed credit landscape.

- Companies that were once seen as lower quality (smaller, highly leveraged) now make up a smaller portion of our focus area.
- Larger, more stable companies are facing balance sheet pressures, providing new opportunities with lower risk and higher returns.

This shift allows us to invest in larger, higher-quality businesses at discounted prices, often at the top of the capital structure, and with the potential for highly compelling returns despite the challenges in the broader market.

The "Distressed Opportunity"

Currently, default rates are around 2%, but with distressed exchanges, the opportunity set expands to 4-5%, double the historical norm. We define distressed as including these exchanges, even though they are meant to avoid or delay defaults.

Unique Market Cycle: "The last 10 years were about equity and the next 10 years are about Credit"

Rising interest rates are the main catalyst for distressed opportunities, putting pressure on highly leveraged companies.

Investors are seeking yield in a challenging environment, as the broader economic slowdown has not yet materialized.

"Dequity" Opportunity

We refer to the LME opportunity as 'Dequity' where we generate equity-like returns by staying at the top of the capital structure in sponsor-backed, highly leveraged companies. While we don't take equity risk today, we capture operating cash flow through senior debt positions, effectively sweeping the cash flow off the business. If we are not repaid (which in many cases we feel is likely down the road), we will ultimately own the business.

Diversified Opportunity Set

Due to the catalyst of rising rates, this shift impacts all borrowers, resulting in a diversified opportunity set.

We Expect this Current Distressed Environment to be a Persistent Opportunity

The primary catalyst for current market stress is rising interest rates, which are increasing debt servicing costs for highly leveraged companies. Earnings declines may come later, but the immediate issue is the pressure on balance sheets.

MUDRICK STRESSED CREDIT FUND

MudrickCapital

MudrickCapital

Mudrick Stressed Credit Fund seeks total returns in performing loans and bonds within overlooked, stressed capital structures

Secured Credits	• The Fund will invest primarily in senior credit instruments trading at discounts to par because of an actual or perceived balance sheet event.
	• Debt that we believe is covered and should not be impaired or equitized if a restructuring occurs.
	  ○ Secondary Trade → Pull-to-par
	  ○ Primary Syndication → Under-followed new issuers / Hung deals
	  ○ Distressed → Debtor-In-Possession (DIP) / Exit / Rescue financings
	  ○ Mudrick Sourced → Proprietary financings

High Yielding Situations	• Senior secured instruments of stressed issuers present potentially attractive opportunities to earn high current income while also participating in capital appreciation. ○ The discount to par is reduced as the balance sheet is restored • We expect a significant portion of the returns will be driven by current income, which can result in a less volatile, uncorrelated return stream.
Inefficient Middle Market Opportunity	• The inefficiency that occurs in the middle market, coupled with the mismatch of firms that can look at this size security, can create a compelling, overlooked opportunity. • Traditional lenders, such as high yield and performing credit funds, typically do not focus on opportunities in distressed capital structures regardless of seniority. ○ These issues typically trade at a higher spread due to the risk of bankruptcy

"Stressed Credit" – Performing, discounted instruments offering what we believe are attractive yields combined with pull-to-par appreciation to create a total return targeting 12-16% IRR.[1]

1. Please refer to the Appendix Performance Notes for additional important information about the criteria and assumptions underlying this 12-16% target IRR. The 12-16% target IRR is shown to indicate the strategy's expected return for new positions. The assumptions and related figures may not be indicative of some or all of the Fund's actual positions and their respective investment horizons and/or performance at any given time. Past performance is not an accurate indicator of current or future returns and potential investors should have no expectation that past performance can or will be replicated in the future. There can be no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

MUDRICK DISTRESSED OPPORTUNITY FUND

MudrickCapital

CORE BUSINESS WITH ADDED 'HIGH OCTANE' SPECIAL SITUATIONS LAYER

MUDRICK CAPITAL

We are able to target stable, reliable returns from distressed credit while also seeking to capture higher returns from more opportunistic and complex restructuring situations

Core Business: Distressed Credit with Strong Risk-Adjusted Returns	• We focus on solid businesses with distressed balance sheets. • We typically target returns of 15-20% IRRs with these deals, seeking attractive risk-adjusted returns while the companies de-leverage and improve performance. • These are typically syndicated loan deals where we can enter as senior lenders and take advantage of restructuring opportunities, without necessarily requiring equity ownership.
Additional Layer of Special Situations for Higher Returns	• Special situations provide an opportunity to potentially significantly enhance returns, aiming for above 20% returns in a strong year. • Currently, we seek to reserve approximately 30% of the Distressed Portfolio for these opportunities.[1] These are situations where we take more risk, but with significantly higher return potential. • Here we are often dealing with convertible debt, equity upside, and negotiations with companies to extend maturities, increase coupon payments, and secure senior positions in the capital structure. • These situations are typically publicly traded, and our investments can be in the form of convertible bonds that provide upside equity exposure as the company improves.

By balancing these two strategies, we can target stable, reliable returns from distressed credit (around 15-20% IRR) while also capturing high octane returns from more opportunistic and complex restructuring situations.

Note: Please refer to the Appendix Performance Notes for additional important information about the criteria and assumptions underlying this 15-20% target IRR. The 15-20% target IRR is shown to indicate the strategy's expected return for new positions. The assumptions and related figures may not be indicative of some or all of the Fund's actual positions and their respective investment horizons and/or performance at any given time. Past performance is not an accurate indicator of current or future returns and potential investors should have no expectation that past performance can or will be replicated in the future. There can be no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

1. Fund performance returns are those of the Class D share class and are presented net of a 1.5% per annum management fee, a 20% incentive allocation and organizational and operational expenses. Fund performance returns are calculated by Mudrick as follows: (i) first, calculate the value of master fund level profit, net of master fund level expenses, for the relevant performance period shown, (ii) subtract feeder fund level expenses for both onshore and offshore feeder funds (which historically have not had a material impact on performance, (iii) then divide that amount by the total fund NAV (net of accrued incentive allocation) at the beginning of the relevant performance period to obtain the fund level "gross performance" (which includes deduction of actual operating and organizational expenses but not management fees and incentive allocations) and (iv) apply the deduction of a 1.5% per annum management fee and a 20% incentive allocation from gross performance to arrive at the Class D share class net return. Class D shares are the only open share class for new subscriptions since April 1, 2024. The Fund has investors in Class A, Class B and Class C share classes that are closed for new subscriptions as of April 1, 2024. The Class D share class bears the same management fee and incentive allocation rate as the closed Class B share class. Therefore, for purposes of calculating the performance return of the Class D share class, the Class B share class performance return has been utilized for the period prior to April 1, 2024. Performance data for prior periods is available upon request. The performance information presented herein for the Fund is meant for informational purposes only. The Fund launched July 1st, 2009. See the Performance Note for more information on the indices mentioned above. Past performance is no guarantee of future success. MUDRICK DISTRESSED OPPORTUNITY DRAWDOWN FUNDS

MDOF IN CLOSED END FORM

The drawdown funds are designed as a distressed opportunity strategy within a closed-end framework. The benefits of this structure include:

Matching of Assets & Liabilities	• This closed-end structure allows for a precise alignment of assets and liabilities, ensuring that the fund's investments are well-matched with its obligations.
Management Fees	• Management fees only charged on invested capital and not on committed capital.
Incentive Fees	• European waterfall methodology provides alignment of interests as incentive fees are crystalized upon investment monetization's and client distributions, and not on trading values. • 8% net preferred LP return before incentive catchup.
Disciplined Approach to Capital Deployment	• Closed-end format fosters a patient approach to capital deployment. The closed-end structure provides certainty to the investment team on capital availability as investment opportunities are sourced.

The Mudrick Distressed Opportunity Drawdown Funds invest pari passu with the Mudrick Distressed Opportunity Fund. This alignment fosters collaboration among different fund entities and streamlines the decision-making process, allowing for a cohesive approach to identifying and capitalizing on distressed opportunities.

The Fund launched July 1st, 2009. Past performance is no guarantee of future success. There can be no assurance that any return of capital will be achieved and investors should be willing to bear a complete loss of capital invested in the Fund.

For Drawdown Fund III, the target 20% IRR and 2.0x+ MOIC calculation is based on the following criteria and assumptions: (1) Interest income and coupon payments of debt instruments purchased by the Fund based on market yields anticipated by Mudrick Capital of instruments within the scope of the strategy; (2) capital appreciation of debt and other instruments purchased by the Fund; (3) fees representing a 1.50% per annum management fee; (4) the incentive distribution amounts that would be paid to the Fund's General Partner in according with the Fund's carried interest "waterfall", which is at a rate of 20% following return of capital contributions to the investor, the investor's receipt of a 8% cumulative preferred return and a 100% "catch-up" allocation paid to the General Partner, as further described in the Fund's Offering Memorandum; and (5) approximately 0.2% per annum of Fund expenses. The investment horizon and 20% target IRR / 2.0x MOIC are shown to indicate the strategy's expected timeline and return for new positions. Target returns are shown for illustrative purposes only and may not materialize. No implication should be drawn as to the advisability of investing in the Fund

1) Invested Capital: Represents aggregate capital invested by Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, or Dislocation Fund, as applicable.
2) Realized Proceeds: Reflects cash proceeds received by Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC or Dislocation Fund (including any interest and dividends) in respect of investments, as applicable.
3) Unrealized Value: Reflects all unrealized portions of investments valued at the fair market value of such investments as of 09/30/25.
4) Total Value: Equals the sum of Realized Proceeds and Unrealized Value in respect of each investment of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC or Dislocation Fund, as applicable.
5) Gross IRR: Calculated using the XIRR formula in Microsoft Excel and on the basis of daily investment inflows and outflows without reduction for carried interest, management fees and partnership expenses. "N/A" means not meaningful and denotes a Gross IRR that is zero or incalculable (i) due to the investment being newly completed one quarter or less before the relevant date hereof, (ii) due to the investment not having any realized or unrealized value, (iii) in the case of CDS and short positions and the Pair Trade. The Pair Trade consists of a long equity position along with a corresponding short position in the same industry; as such, due to the existence of the corresponding short position an IRR is incalculable for this position. Cash flows for investments denoted as N/A have nonetheless been included in the calculation of Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR. Performance of each CDS investment, short position and the Pair Trade shows realized proceeds and unrealized value from each such investment.
6) Gross Multiple of Invested Capital ("MOIC"): Equals the Total Value for each investment divided by the Invested Capital in such investment. Gross MOIC does not reflect deduction of carried interest, management fees and partnership expenses. "N/A" means not meaningful and denotes a Gross Multiple that is zero or incalculable (i) due to the investment being newly completed one quarter or less before the relevant date hereof, (ii) due to the investment not having any realized or unrealized value, (iii) in the case of CDS and short positions and the Pair Trade. The Pair Trade consists of a long equity position along with a corresponding short position in the same industry; as such, due to the existence of the corresponding short position a Multiple is incalculable for this position. Cash flows for investments denoted as N/A have nonetheless been included in the calculation of Fund Level Gross Multiple and Fund Level Net Multiple. Performance of each CDS investment, short position and the Pair Trade shows realized proceeds and unrealized value from each such investment.
7) Gross Multiple of Invested Capital ("MOIC"): Equals the Total Value for each investment divided by the Invested Capital in such investment. Gross MOIC does not reflect deduction of carried interest, management fees and partnership expenses. "N/A" means not meaningful and denotes a Gross Multiple that is zero or incalculable (i) due to the investment being newly completed one quarter or less before the relevant date hereof, (ii) due to the investment not having any realized or unrealized value, (iii) in the case of CDS and short positions and the Pair Trade. The Pair Trade consists of a long equity position along with a corresponding short position in the same industry; as such, due to the existence of the corresponding short position a Multiple is incalculable for this position. Cash flows for investments denoted as N/A have nonetheless been included in the calculation of Fund Level Gross Multiple and Fund Level Net Multiple. Performance of each CDS investment, short position and the Pair Trade shows realized proceeds and unrealized value from each such investment.
8) Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR: The presented Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR are calculated for first closing investors using the XIRR formula in Microsoft Excel based on the cash flows (i.e., contributions from and distributions to investors) into and out of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown III (as applicable) since its inception and assume that the entire portfolio of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) was realized on 09/30/2025 at Drawdown Fund I's, Drawdown Fund II's, Drawdown Fund II SC's, Dislocation Fund's or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) aggregate ending net asset value as of such date. Fund Level Gross IRR is gross of management fees and accrued and distributed incentive amounts, but net of fund expenses (taking into account actual management fees borne by limited partners of Drawdown Fund I, some of whom were entitled to reduced or no management fees). Fund Level Gross IRR is presented for an investor who invested in Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III since inception and is gross of management fees and accrued and distributed incentive amounts, but net of fund expenses. The Fund Level Net IRR is adjusted to reflect the estimated effect of the general partner's incentive distribution amounts and management fees that would be paid if the entire portfolio of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) were realized on 09/30/25 at Drawdown Fund I's, Drawdown Fund II's, Drawdown Fund II SC's, Dislocation Fund's or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) aggregate ending net asset value as of such date, assuming that all investors in the fund bear incentive distribution amounts at the highest rate borne by fee-paying investors, which is 20%. The Fund Level Net IRR takes into account the return to first close investors of their capital contributions and receipt of their 8% cumulative preferred return, and assuming a 100% general partner "catch up" until the general partner has received 20% of cumulative profits. Incentive distributions will actually be taken by the general partner of the Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) only upon distributions to fund investors. Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR are presented for an investor that (i) has been invested in Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable), since inception, (ii) is paying the highest management fee and (in the case of the Fund Level Net IRR) incentive allocation applicable to fee paying investors (regardless if such fees were actually borne by any first closing investor) and (iii) has made no additional capital commitments. Performance presented does not reflect feeder fund-specific expenses of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) offshore feeder, which historically have not had a material impact on performance.

9) Fund Level Gross MOIC and Fund Level Net MOIC. Fund Level Gross MOIC is calculated by dividing Drawdown Fund I's, Drawdown Fund II's , Drawdown Fund II SC's, Dislocation Fund's or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) aggregate ending net asset value as of 09/30/2025 by the sum of the aggregate net capital contributions to and distributions from Drawdown Fund I (including recalling of distributions during the investment period), Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) since its inception. The gross fund-level multiple is gross of management fees and accrued and distributed incentive amounts, but net of fund expenses. The net fund-level multiple is adjusted to reflect the estimated effect of the general partner's incentive distribution amounts that would be paid if the entire portfolio of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) were realized on 09/30/2025 at Drawdown Fund I's, Drawdown Fund II's, Drawdown Fund II SC 's, Dislocation Fund's or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) aggregate ending net asset value as of such date, assuming that all investors in the fund bear incentive distribution amounts at the highest rate borne by fee-paying investors, which is 20%. Fund Level Net MOIC takes into account the return to first close investors of their capital contributions and receipt of their 8% cumulative preferred return, and assuming a 100% general partner "catch up" until the general partner has received 20% of cumulative profits. Incentive distributions will actually be taken by the general partner of the Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) only upon distributions to fund investors. Fund Level Gross MOIC and Fund Level Net MOIC are presented for an investor that (i) has been invested in Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) since inception, (ii) is paying the highest management fee and (in the case of the Fund Level Net MOIC) incentive allocation applicable to fee paying investors (regardless if such fees were actually borne by any first closing investor) and (iii) has made no additional capital commitments. Performance presented does not reflect feeder fund-specific expenses of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) offshore feeder, which historically have not had a material impact on performance.

10) The actual performance attained by any investor in Drawdown Fund I is subject to variation from the performance shown herein by virtue of the date of such investor's investment (i.e., whether such investor invested at the time of initial closing of Drawdown Fund I, or invested at the second closing), due to the potential impacts of compounding, and differences in fee structures. Investors who invested in the first closing generally bear lower fees and incentive distribution rates than second-close investors. Further, second close investors do not share in appreciation (or loss) from investments during the time period preceding the second closing. Drawdown Fund I estimated net performance returns of a hypothetical investor bearing the highest management fee and incentive distribution rates applicable to fee paying investors that invested in Drawdown Fund I at the fund's second closing in January of 2017, calculated using the methodology set forth above, would have been as follows as 09/30/25: The fund-level IRRs and Multiples for second close investors are 11.5% (gross) and 9.2% (net) and 1.79x (gross) and 1.55x (net), respectively.

11) Performance information presented reflects assumptions regarding the value of unrealized investments, which values are subject to numerous factors which change over time. Amounts actually realized in the future for investments constituting Drawdown Fund I's, Drawdown Fund II's, Drawdown Fund II SC's, Dislocation Fund's or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) portfolio will vary (and may vary materially) from the estimated values used in connection with calculations referenced herein and will depend on, among other factors, future results of the companies in which the fund invests, market conditions at the time of disposition, legal and contractual restrictions, related transaction costs and the timing and manner of sale, all of which may differ from the assumptions and circumstances on which the valuations used herein are based. Performance presented does not reflect feeder fund-specific expenses of Drawdown Fund I's, Drawdown Fund II's, Drawdown Fund II SC's, Dislocation Fund's or Drawdown Fund III's (as applicable) offshore feeder which historically have not had a material impact on performance.

12) Past performance of Drawdown Fund I, Drawdown Fund II, Drawdown Fund II SC, Dislocation Fund or Drawdown Fund III (as applicable) is not a prediction of future performance. Further, there can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve comparable returns, that its performance objectives will be achieved or that investors will receive a return of capital.

13) The returns of indexes referenced herein are provided merely as an indication of the performance of various capital markets or strategies, as applicable. Index returns are not indicative of prospective returns, or the investment strategy, of the Fund. In reviewing the performance of the Fund, investors should not consider any of the indexes presented herein to be performance benchmarks. Because the Fund engages in a variety of strategies and invests in various types of securities, an investment in the Fund is not comparable to an investment in the securities represented by any of the indexes. The Fund is actively managed, uses leverage and other trading strategies and invests in securities that may have a greater degree of risk and volatility than those included in such indexes. The index information set forth herein is presented for comparison only. The Fund does not track an index and the performance and tax consequences of an investment in the securities represented by any of these indexes, on the one hand, and an investment in the Fund, on the other hand, are likely to be materially different. An index generally represents passive performance of the constituent securities and does not reflect management fees, incentive allocation and expenses that would be associated with an investment in the Fund. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. The ICE BofA US High Yield Index is market capitalization weighted and is designed to measure the performance of U.S. dollar denominated below investment grade corporate debt publicly issued in the U.S. domestic market. The HFRX Event Driven Index, is unmanaged, uninvestable index whose components are investment funds with strategies focused on companies currently or prospectively involved in corporate transactions of a wide variety including but not limited to mergers, restructurings, financial distress, tender offers, shareholder buybacks, debt exchanges, security issuance or other capital structure adjustments. The HFRX Global Hedge Fund Index is an unmanaged, uninvestable index comprised of investment funds representing the broad universe of hedge fund strategies, including but not limited to equity hedge, event-driven, macro, and relative value approaches. It is designed to be representative of the overall composition of the hedge fund industry. The HFRX Fixed Income Credit Index is an unmanaged, uninvestable index whose components are investment funds employing credit-focused strategies, including but not limited to corporate credit, distressed/restructuring, sovereign debt, and other credit arbitrage approaches. The index reflects the performance of hedge funds active in credit markets globally. HFRX Indices data has been obtained from Hedge Fund Research. (HFR.com)

With respect to the Thryv Co-Investment returns on Slide 3, the presented Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR are calculated for investors in Verto Opportunity Fund, L.P. ("Verto"), a co-investment vehicle formed to hold the Thryv investment (via its predecessor companies), together with a continuation vehicle formed to roll the coinvestment into for participating investors after the end of the original Verto term, Verto Opportunity Fund II, L.P. ("Verto II"), using the XIRR formula in Microsoft Excel based on the cash flows (i.e., contributions from and distributions to investors) into and out of Verto and Verto II through the end of life of the funds. At the end of the term of Verto, moneization of the coinvestment was not complet and investors were provided with the option to either (i) receive their liquidating distributable share of Verto's assets (which consisted of the co-investment and cash) or (ii) "rolling" their investment into Verto II that would continue management of the coinvestment until monetization was complete. Fund Level Gross IRR is gross of management fees and accrued and distributed incentive amounts, but net of fund expenses (taking into account actual management fees borne by limited partners of Verto and Verto II, some of whom were entitled to reduced or no management fees). Fund Level Gross IRR is presented for an investor who invested in Verto and Verto II since each fund's inception and is gross of management fees and accrued and distributed incentive amounts, but net of fund expenses. The Fund Level Net IRR is adjusted to reflect the effect of the general partner's incentive distribution amounts and management fees paid through the end of life of the funds, assuming that all investors in the fund bear incentive distribution amounts at the highest rate borne by fee-paying investors, which is 20% (for both Verto and Verto II). The Fund Level Net IRR takes into account the return to investors of their capital contributions and receipt of their 8% cumulative preferred return, and assuming a 100% general partner "catch up" until the general partner has received 20% of cumulative profits. Incentive distributions were taken by the general partner of Verto and Verto II only upon distributions to fund investors. Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR are presented for an investor that (i) has been invested in Verto since inception, (ii) is paying the highest management fee and (in the case of the Fund Level Net IRR) incentive allocation applicable to fee paying investors (regardless if such fees were actually borne by any first closing investor) and (iii) has made no additional capital commitments. Performance presented does not reflect feeder fund-specific expenses of Verto or Verto II's offshore feeder, which historically have not had a material impact on performance.

With respect to the NJOY Co-Investment returns on Slide 3, the presented Gross and Net IRR are calculated using the XIRR formula in Microsoft Excel for a representative NJOY co-investor in a separately managed account ("NJOY SMA") since its inception based on the cash flows (i.e., contributions from and distributions to investors) into and out of the NJOY SMA and assume that the entire portfolio of the NJOY SMA was realized on 12/31/24 at the NJOY SMA's aggregate ending net asset value as of such date. Gross IRR is gross of accrued and distributed incentive amounts, but net of fund expenses (there is no management fee for the account). Net IRR is adjusted to reflect the estimated effect of the general partner's incentive distribution amounts that would be paid if the entire portfolio of the NJOY SMA was realized on 12/31/24 at the NJOY SMA's aggregate ending net asset value as of such date, with the client bearing incentive distribution amounts of 20%. The NJOY SMA Net IRR takes into account the return to the client of its capital contributions and receipt of its 8% cumulative preferred return, and assuming a 100% general partner "catch up" until the general partner has received 20% of cumulative profits and thereafter a profit split such that the general partner receives 20% of cumulative profits thereafter. Fund Level Gross IRR and Fund Level Net IRR is presented for a NJOY Co-investor that (i) has been invested in the NJOY co-investment since inception, (ii) is paying the incentive allocation applicable to fee paying NJOY co-investment clients and (iii) has made no additional capital commitments to its NJOY SMA.

CERTAIN INVESTMENT CONSIDERATIONS AND DISCLOSURES

An investment in the Fund will involve significant risks due to, among other things, the nature of the Fund's investments and potential conflicts of interest. There can be no assurance that the Fund will realize its investment objectives or return any investor capital. The value of an investment in the Fund may fluctuate. Investors should have the financial ability and willingness to accept the risks (including, among other things, the risk of a total loss of investment and the lack of liquidity) characteristic of investments in entities such as the Fund. Risk factors include the following:

No Assurance of Investment Return; Risk of Loss. An investment in the Fund is speculative and involves significant risk, including the possible loss of the entire amount invested. Mudrick Capital cannot provide assurance that it will be able to identify, choose, make or realize investments of the type targeted for the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to generate returns for investors or that returns will be commensurate with the risks of the investments within the Fund's investment objectives. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objectives will be achieved or that there will be any return of capital.

Concentration Risk. The Fund is expected to participate in a limited number of portfolio investments and, as a consequence, the aggregate return realized by the Fund may be substantially adversely affected by the unfavorable performance of any single portfolio investment.

Key Professionals. There can be no assurance that the investment professionals of Mudrick Capital will remain at Mudrick Capital throughout the life of the Fund. Loss of any key personnel could have a material adverse effect on the potential performance of the Fund.

Lack of Liquidity. The Fund is intended for long term investors who have the financial ability and willingness to accept the risks associated with an investment in the Fund. An investor in the Fund may not freely transfer, assign or sell any interest without the prior consent of the Fund's general partner. Investors will not be permitted to withdraw from the Fund. Interests in the Fund will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any other securities laws in any jurisdiction. There is no liquid market for such interests and none is expected to develop.

General Market Risk. Investments made by the Fund will generally involve a significant degree of financial and/or business risk. General economic conditions may affect the Fund's activities and the performance of the portfolio companies. Interest rates, general levels of economic activity, the prices of securities and participation by other investors in the financial markets may affect the value and number of investments made by the Fund or considered for prospective investment.

Potential Conflicts of Interest. Investors should be aware that there will be occasions when Mudrick Capital and its officers and affiliates may encounter potential conflicts of interest in connection with the Fund. The general partner's incentive allocation may create an incentive to make riskier or more speculative investments on behalf of the Fund than would be the case in the absence of this arrangement. Members of the Mudrick Capital team will work on other matters and, therefore, conflicts may arise in the allocation of management resources.

Taxation. Certain risks related to taxation will be more fully discussed in the Fund's definitive offering documentation, which prospective investors should read carefully. Prospective investors are urged to consult their own tax advisers with respect to their own tax situations and the effects of an investment in the Fund.

Accordingly, actual realized returns may differ materially from the target returns indicated herein.

For purposes of the portfolio performance attribution calculations regarding "success rate" and successful versus unsuccessful trades, each position's attribution value is the sum of such position's monthly contributions to gross profits (or losses), which are determined by dividing such position's gross profit (or loss) for the relevant month by the fund's opening net asset value for such month, and adding together all such monthly amounts for the period such position was held in the fund.
